

TITLE XIV

LEGISLATION AND THE LEGISLATURE

CHAPTER	PAGE
84. CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) ...	2585
85. INTERPRETATION AND GENERAL PROVISIONS ...	2617
86. LEADERSHIP CODE (FURTHER PROVISIONS) ...	2649
87. NATIONAL PARLIAMENT (ELECTORAL PROVISIONS)	2665
88. OMBUDSMAN (FURTHER PROVISIONS) ...	2713
89. PRESCRIPTION OF JUDGES (COURT OF APPEAL) ...	2727
90. PRESCRIPTION OF JUDGES (HIGH COURT) ...	2729
91. PRESCRIPTION OF MINISTERS ...	2731
92. PUBLIC SERVICE ...	2733
93. REVISION OF LAWS ...	2755

CHAPTER 84

CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE)

AN ACT TO PRESCRIBE THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF HOLDERS OF CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES 22 of 1987

[1st January 1988]

1. This Act may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) Act. Short title

2. The Minister may by order prescribe the annual or daily salary, as the case may be, that shall be paid to the holder of an office specified in the Schedule. Salaries Schedule

3. The Minister may make regulations in respect of the terms and conditions of service (including housing and transportation) to which the holder of an office specified in the Schedule is entitled. Regulations

4. All payments required by virtue of the provisions of this Act shall be charged and Payments charged on defrayed out of the Consolidated Fund.

Consolidated Fund

SCHEDULE

(Section 2)

Governor-General

Speaker

Chief Justice

Puisne Judge

Chairman of the Public Service Commission (fulltime)

Ombudsman

Director of Public Prosecutions

Auditor-General

Commissioner of Police

Public Solicitor

President Court of Appeal (Non-resident)

Justice of Appeal (Non-resident)

Puisne Judge (Non-resident)

Chairman and Member of the Constituency Boundaries Commission

Member of the Electoral Commission

Additional appointed Member of-

(i) the Judicial and Legal Service Commission

(ii) the Police and Prison Service Commission

(iii) the Public Service Commission

(iv) the Teaching Service Commission

CHAPTER 84

CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE)

Subsidiary Legislation

THE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) (GOVERNOR- GENERAL) REGULATIONS

LN 140/1990

(Section 3)

[12th October 1990]

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Governor-General) Regulations Citation

2.-(1) The Governor-General shall be paid an annual salary of $40,000.00. Salary

(2) The salary paid to the Governor-General shall be exempted from income tax.

(3) The spouse of the Governor-General shall be paid an allowance of $5,000 per annum which shall be subject to tax.

3. The Governor-General shall be provided with an official residence which shall be free of rent. Housing

4. The cost of water, gas, electricity and telephone provided to the Governor-General's official residence shall be paid for by the Government. Utilities

5. The Governor-General shall be provided with two police drivers and all other employees shall be provided under the establishment and non-establishment registers of the Office of Governor-General. Domestic staff

6. The Governor-General shall be provided with four vehicles free of charge. Transport

7.-(1) The Governor-General shall be entitled to forty-two days leave for every year of service which shall be taken during the year in which it accrues. Annual leave

8.-(1) The Governor-General and the members of his family shall be provided with free air or sea passages, as appropriate, from Honiara to his place of domicile and return passages to Honiara. Passage local

(2) The maximum number of passages per calendar year shall not exceed six.

(3) In this regulation 'place of domicile' includes place of domicile of spouse.

9.-(1) When the Governor-General is on official local tour the Government shall meet all official costs, (including meals) and be paid an allowance of forty dollars per day. Local travel expenses

(2) Where the spouse of the Governor-General accompanies the Governor-General on an official local tour the spouse shall be entitled to a daily allowance of forty dollars.

10.-(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2), the Governor-General shall be entitled on official overseas travel to an allowance equivalent to the allowance paid to the Prime Minister on official overseas travel. Overseas travel

(2) Where the cost of the travel is met by a host country or any other source, the Governor-General shall be entitled to fifty per cent of the allowance prescribed in paragraph (1).

(3) Where the spouse of the Governor-General accompanies the Governor-General on an official overseas visit, the spouse shall be entitled to the same allowances as prescribed in paragraphs (1) or (2), as the case may be.

11.-(1) The Governor-General shall be entitled to travel first class on all official visits overseas. Class of travel (overseas visits)

(2) The spouse of the Governor-General shall be entitled to travel first class on overseas visits when accompanying the Governor-General on such visits.

- 12.-(1) The person appointed as Governor-General shall be entitled on his first appointment to a tax-free grant of six thousand dollars. Appointment grant
- (2) On the first appointment of a person to the Office of the Governor-General, the spouse of such person shall be entitled to a grant of three thousand dollars.
- 13. The Governor-General shall be entitled to eight thousand dollars as entertainment allowance per annum. Entertainment allowance
- 14.-(1) The Governor-General shall be entitled on first appointment to a clothing allowance at the rate of $500 and thereafter at the rate of $200 for each year of service. Clothing allowance
- (2) On the first appointment of a person to the Office of the Governor-General, the spouse of such person shall be entitled to clothing allowance at the same rate as prescribed in paragraph (1).
- 15. The Governor-General, his spouse and children shall be entitled to medical treatment free of charge in Government hospitals. Where overseas medical treatment is recommended by the Chief Consultant, the Government shall bear the cost of such expenses. Medical treatment
- 16. The Governor-General shall be eligible for a Government-guaranteed loan, the amount of which shall not be more than eighty thousand dollars. Personal loan guarantee
- 17. Where the Governor-General ceases to hold office the cost of transporting his personal effects shall be met by the Government. Baggage
- 18. The Governor-General shall contribute to the National Provident Fund as required under the provisions of the National Provident Fund Act. NPF contributions
Cap. 109
- 19. In the event of the Governor-General dying during the tenure of his office the Government shall be responsible for all funeral expenses and all other expenses incidental thereto. Death during term of office

20. The Governor-General shall be entitled to a tax-free terminal grant of $14,000.00 on termination of his appointment. Terminal grant

21. The Government shall be responsible for providing adequate security at the residence of the Governor-General. Security

THE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) (SPEAKER)
REGULATIONS LN 144/1990

(Section 3)

[12th October 1990]

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Speaker) Regulations. Citation

2. Subject to the provisions of section 64 of the Constitution, the term of Speaker shall be a period of four years. Term of office

3. The duties of the Speaker shall be as prescribed under section 65 of the Constitution and the Standing Orders of the National Parliament. Duties

4. The Speaker shall be paid a taxable salary of $62,673.03 per annum. Salary

5. The Speaker shall make contributions to the National Provident Fund as required under the provisions of the Solomon Islands National Provident Fund Act. NPF contributions
Cap. 109

6. The Speaker shall be provided with an official residence free of rent. Housing

7. The cost of water, gas and electricity provided to the Speaker's official residence Utilities shall be paid for by the Government.

8. The wages payable for the services of a driver, gardener and domestic helper shall be paid for by the Government. Domestic staff

9. The Speaker shall be provided with a vehicle free of charge. Vehicles

10. The Speaker shall be entitled to leave at the rate of three and a half days a month (forty-two days per annum) for every year of service, which shall be taken during the year in which it accrues. Leave

11. The Speaker and members of his family shall be provided with free air or sea passages, as appropriate, from Honiara to his place of domicile and return passages to Honiara when proceeding on annual or compassionate leave. Passages

12.-(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2), the Speaker shall be entitled on official overseas travel to an allowance equivalent to that payable to Ministers under the Members of Parliament (Entitlements) Commission Regulations. Overseas travel allowances

(2) Where the cost of the travel is met by a host country or any other source, the Speaker shall be entitled only to fifty per cent of the allowance as prescribed for Ministers in the Members of Parliament (Entitlements) Commission Regulations.

(3) Where the wife of the Speaker accompanies him on an official overseas visit, the wife shall be entitled to the same allowance as prescribed in paragraphs (1) or (2), as the case may be.

13.-(1) The Speaker shall be entitled to travel first class on all official visits overseas. Class of travel (overseas visits)

(2) The wife of the Speaker shall be entitled to travel first class on overseas visits provided she accompanies the Speaker on such visits.

14. The person appointed as Speaker shall be entitled on his first appointment to an appointment grant of $2,000.00. Appointment grant

- 15. The Speaker shall be entitled to a clothing allowance as is payable to Ministers of the Government in accordance with the Members of Parliament (Entitlements) Commission Regulations. Clothing allowance
- 16. The Speaker shall be entitled to an entertainment allowance of $4,000.00 per annum. Entertainment allowance
- 17. The Speaker shall be entitled to medical treatment in accordance with the terms set out for Ministers in the Members of Parliament (Entitlements) Commission Regulations. Medical treatment
- 18. The Speaker shall be eligible for a Government-guaranteed loan on the same terms and conditions as set out for Ministers under the Members of Parliament (Entitlements) Commission Regulations. Personal loan guarantee
- 19. A baggage allowance as prescribed in General Orders shall be payable to the Speaker. Baggage allowance
- 20. Where a person dies while he is the Speaker the Government shall bear all funeral expenses and other expenses incidental thereto. Death during incumbency
- 21. The Speaker acting in the office of the Governor-General under section 28 of the Constitution shall be entitled to be paid a charge allowance as prescribed by General Orders. Charge allowance
- 22. The Speaker shall be entitled to a terminal grant of $7,000.00 at the end of the term of his office. Terminal grant

REGULATIONS

(Section 3)

[12th October 1990]

- |  |                               |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Chief Justice) Regulations.  | Citation                      |
| 2. The term of office of the Chief Justice shall be subject to the provisions of Section 80 of the Constitution.  | Term of office                |
| 3. The duties of the Chief Justice shall be as prescribed under Part II of Chapter VII of the Constitution.   | Duties                        |
| 4. The Chief Justice shall be paid a taxable salary of $64,397.18 per annum.   | Salary                        |
| 5. The Chief Justice shall make contributions to the National Provident Fund as required under the provisions of the Solomon Islands National Provident Fund Act.   | NPF contributionsCap. 109 |
| 6. The Chief Justice shall be provided with an official residence free of rent.   | Housing                       |
| 7. The cost of water, gas and electricity provided to the Chief Justice's official residence shall be charged to public funds and be paid for by the Government.  | Utilities                     |
| 8. The wages payable for the services of a driver, and two domestic employees shall be charged to public funds and paid for by the Government.  | Domestic staff                |
| 9. The Chief Justice shall be provided with a vehicle free of charge.   | Vehicle                       |
| 10. The Chief Justice shall be entitled to leave at the rate of three and half days a month (forty-two days per annum) for every year of service, which shall be taken during the year in which it accrues. | Leave                         |

11.-(1) The Chief Justice and members of his family shall be provided with free air or sea passages, as appropriate, from Honiara when proceeding on annual leave to his place of domicile and return passages to Honiara.

Passages

(2) In this regulation 'place of domicile' includes place of domicile of his spouse outside Solomon Islands, if the spouse is not a citizen of Solomon Islands.

12.-(1) The Chief Justice shall be entitled on official overseas travel to a daily allowance of US$55.00 or one-fifth of the daily allowance, if the travel is externally funded.

Overseas travel allowance

(2) Where the spouse of the Chief Justice accompanies him on an official overseas visit, the spouse shall be entitled to claim subsistence allowance at the rate payable to the Chief Justice under paragraph (1).

13.-(1) The Chief Justice shall be entitled to travel first class on all official visits overseas.

Class of travel (overseas visits)

(2) The spouse of the Chief Justice shall be entitled to travel first class on all overseas visits provided she accompanies the Chief Justice on such visits.

14. The Chief Justice shall be entitled to a daily allowance of $40 whilst on official travel within Solomon Islands.

Local travel allowance

15. The person appointed as Chief Justice shall be entitled on his first appointment to an appointment grant of $4,000.

Appointment grant

16. The Chief Justice shall be entitled to an outfit allowance of $500 when travelling overseas. The allowance may be claimed once every three years.

Clothing allowance

17. The Chief Justice shall be entitled to an entertainment allowance of $6,000 per annum.

Entertainment allowance

- 18. The Chief Justice shall be entitled to medical treatment in accordance with the terms set out from time to time for public officers. Medical treatment
- 19. The Chief Justice shall be eligible for a Government-guaranteed loan, the maximum amount which shall not exceed his annual basic salary. Personal loan guarantee
- 20. A baggage allowance as prescribed in General Orders shall be payable to the Chief Justice. Baggage allowance
- 21. Where the Chief Justice dies whilst in office the Government shall pay all funeral expenses and all other expenses incidental thereto. Death during incumbency
- 22. The Chief Justice shall be entitled to all other benefits available to public officers under the General Orders or other regulations which are not covered under these Regulations. Miscellaneous benefits
- 23. The Government shall be responsible for providing adequate security at the residence of the Chief Justice. Security

THE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) (PUISNE JUDGE) REGULATIONS LN 142/1990

(Section 3)

[12th October 1990]

- 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Puisne Judge) Regulations. Citation
- 2. The term of office of the Puisne Judge is subject to the provisions of section 80 Term of office of the Constitution.

- |  |                               |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 3. The functions of the Puisne Judge shall be as prescribed under Part II of Chapter VII of the Constitution.   | Duties                        |
| 4. The Puisne Judge shall be paid a taxable salary of $60,948.90 per annum.  | Salary                        |
| 5. The Puisne Judge shall contribute to the National Provident Fund as required under the provisions of the Solomon Islands National Provident Fund Act.  | NPF contributionsCap. 109 |
| 6. The Puisne Judge shall be provided with an official residence free of rent.  | Housing                       |
| 7. The cost of water, gas and electricity provided to the Puisne Judge's official residence shall be charged to public funds and be paid for by the Government.   | Utilities                     |
| 8. The wages payable for the services of a driver and a domestic employee shall be charged to public funds and be paid for by the Government.   | Domestic staff                |
| 9. The Puisne Judge shall be provided with a vehicle free of charge.  | Vehicle                       |
| 10. The Puisne Judge shall be entitled to leave at the rate of three and half days a month (forty-two days per annum) for every year of service which shall be taken during the year in which it accrues. | Leave                         |
| 11.-(1) The Puisne Judge and the members of his family shall be provided with free air or sea passages, as appropriate, from Honiara to his place of domicile and return passages to Honiara.             | Passages                      |
| (2) In this regulation 'place of domicile' includes place of domicile of his spouse outside of Solomon Islands, if the spouse is not a citizen of Solomon Islands.  |                               |
| 12. The Puisne Judge shall be entitled to two return trips either by sea or air within  | Compassionate leave           |

Solomon Islands on compassionate leave per annum.

13.-(1) The Puisne Judge shall be entitled on official overseas travel to a daily allowance of US$55.00 or one-fifth of the daily allowance if such travel is externally funded.

Overseas travel allowances

(2) Where the spouse of the Puisne Judge accompanies him on an official overseas visit, the spouse shall be entitled to claim subsistence allowance at the rate payable to the Puisne Judge under paragraph (1).

14.-(1) The Puisne Judge shall be entitled to travel first class on all official visits overseas.

Class of travel

(2) The spouse of the Puisne Judge shall be entitled to travel first class on all overseas visits when accompanying the Puisne Judge on such visits.

15. The Puisne Judge shall be entitled to a daily allowance of $40.00 whilst on official travel within Solomon Islands.

Local travel allowance

16. The person appointed as Puisne Judge shall be entitled on his first appointment to an appointment grant of $2,000.00.

Appointment grant

17.-(1) The Puisne Judge shall be entitled to an outfit allowance of $500.00 when travelling overseas. The allowance may be claimed once every three years.

Clothing allowance

18. The Puisne Judge shall be entitled to an entertainment allowance as prescribed by General Orders.

Entertainment allowance

19. The Puisne Judge shall be entitled to medical treatment in accordance with the terms set out from time to time for public officers.

Medical treatment

20. The Puisne Judge shall be eligible for a Government-guaranteed loan, the maximum amount which shall not exceed his annual basic salary.

Personal loan guarantee

- 21. The Puisne Judge shall be entitled to baggage allowance as prescribed by General Orders. Baggage allowance
- 22. Where the Puisne Judge dies whilst in office, the Government shall pay for all funeral expenses and all other expenses incidental thereto. Death during incumbency
- 23. The Puisne Judge shall be entitled to all other benefits available to public officer under General Orders or other regulations which are not covered under these Regulations. Miscellaneous benefits
- 24. The Government shall be responsible for providing adequate security at the residence of the Puisne Judge. Security

THE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) (CHAIRMAN OF PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION) REGULATIONS LN 151/1990

(Section 3)

[17th October 1990]

- 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Chairman of Public Service Commission) Regulations. Citation
- 2. Subject to the provisions of section 115 of the Constitution, the term of office of Chairman shall be not less than three nor more than six years. Term of office
- 3. The duties of the Chairman shall be as prescribed under Chapter XIII of the Constitution. Duties
- 4. The Chairman shall be paid an annual taxable salary of $59,224.75. Salary

- |  |                                       |
|--|---------------------------------------|
| 5. The Chairman shall contribute to the National Provident Fund as required under the provisions of the Solomon Islands National Provident Fund Act.   | NPF contributionsCap. 109 |
| 6. The Chairman shall on first appointment be paid an appointment grant of $2,000.00.   | Appointment grant              |
| 7. The Chairman shall be provided with official residence free of rent.  | Housing                        |
| 8. The cost of water, gas and electricity provided to the Chairman's residence shall be charged to public funds and be paid for by the Government.   | Utilities                      |
| 9. Services of one domestic employee shall be charged to public funds and be paid for by the Government.   | Domestic staff                 |
| 10. The Chairman shall be provided with one government vehicle free of charge.   | Vehicle                        |
| 11. The Chairman shall be entitled to annual leave at the rate of three and half days a month or forty-two days per annum for every year of service, which shall be taken during the year in which it accrues. | Leave                          |
| 12. The Chairman shall be entitled to two return trips either by sea or air on compassionate leave per annum.  | Compassionate leave            |
| 13.-(1) The Chairman and members of his family shall be provided with passages as appropriate to his place of domicile and return passages to Honiara when proceeding on annual leave.                         | Passage                        |
| (2) In this regulation 'place of domicile' includes place of domicile of the spouse.  |                                       |
| 14.-(1) The Chairman shall be entitled to a daily allowance of US$55.00 whilst on overseas travel or one-fifth of the daily allowance if such travel is externally funded.                                    | Overseas travel                |

(2) Where the Chairman is a guest of a host government, administration or agency and is not called upon to meet costs for accommodation and meals, he may claim subsistence allowance at one-fifth of the standard rate applicable to public officers under General Orders.

15. The Chairman shall be entitled to a daily allowance of $40.00 whilst on official travel within Solomon Islands. Local travel

16.-(1) The Chairman shall be entitled to travel first class on all official visits overseas. Class of travel

(2) The spouse of the Chairman shall be entitled to travel first class on official visits overseas when accompanying the Chairman on such visits.

(3) The spouse shall be entitled to claim subsistence allowance at the rate payable to the Chairman under regulation 14(2).

17. The Chairman shall be entitled to an outfit allowance of $500.00 when travelling overseas on official visits. Such allowance may be claimed once every three years. Outfit allowance

18. The Chairman shall be entitled to an entertainment allowance from the Prime Minister's Vote for entertainment. The amount of the allowance shall be as declared by the Accounting Officer. Entertainment allowance

19. The Chairman shall be entitled to medical treatment in accordance with the terms prescribed from time to time for public officers. Medical treatment

20. The Chairman shall be entitled to a Government-guaranteed loan, the amount of which shall not exceed his annual basic salary at the time of application. Personal loan guarantee

21. A baggage allowance as prescribed from time to time by General Orders shall be payable. Baggage allowance

22. Where the Chairman dies whilst in office the Government shall pay for all funeral Death during incumbency expenses and all other expenses incidental thereto.

23. The Chairman shall be entitled to all other benefits available to public officers under the General Orders or other regulations which are not covered under these Regulations.

Miscellaneous benefits

24.-(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2), the Chairman shall be entitled to a terminal grant of seven thousand dollars on expiration of his term of office.

Terminal grant

(2) Any accumulated debts shall be offset from the grant specified under the provisions of paragraph (1).

THE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) (OMBUDSMAN)
REGULATIONS

LN 146/1990

(Section 3)

[12th October 1990]

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Ombudsman) Regulations.

Citation

2. Subject to the provisions of Section 96 of the Constitution, the term of Office of the Ombudsman shall be a period of five years.

Term of office

3. The duties of the Ombudsman shall be as prescribed under Chapter IX of the Constitution.

Duties

4. The Ombudsman shall be paid an annual taxable salary of $59,224.75.

Salary

5. The Ombudsman shall make contributions to the National Provident Fund as required under the provisions of the Solomon Islands National Provident Fund Act.

NPF contributions
Cap. 109

- |   |                                  |
|---|----------------------------------|
| 6. The Ombudsman shall on first appointment receive an appointment grant of $2,000.00.   | Appointment grant         |
| 7. The Ombudsman shall be entitled to rent-free Government accommodation.   | Housing                   |
| 8. The cost of water, gas and electricity provided to the residence of the Ombudsman shall be charged to public funds and be paid for by the Government.  | Utilities                 |
| 9. The wages payable for the services of one domestic employee shall be charged to public funds and be paid for by the Government.  | Domestic staff            |
| 10. The Ombudsman shall be provided with a Government vehicle free of charge.   | Vehicle                   |
| 11. The Ombudsman shall be entitled to leave at three and half days a month or forty-two days per annum for every year of service, which leave shall be taken during the year in which it accrues.          | Leave                     |
| 12. The Ombudsman shall be entitled to two return trips either by air or sea on compassionate leave per annum.  | Compassionate leave       |
| 13.-(1) The Ombudsman and his family shall be provided with free air or sea passages, as appropriate, from Honiara to his place of domicile and return passages to Honiara when proceeding on annual leave. | Passage                   |
| (2) In this regulation 'place of domicile' includes place of domicile of the spouse.   |                                  |
| 14.-(1) The Ombudsman shall be entitled on official overseas travel to a daily subsistence allowance of US$55.00 or one-fifth of the daily allowance if the travel is externally funded.                   | Overseas travel allowance |
| (2) Where the Ombudsman is a guest of a host government, administration or agency and is not called upon to meet costs for accommodation and meals, he may   |                                  |

claim subsistence allowance at one-fifth of the standard rate as applicable to public officers under the General Orders.

15. The Ombudsman shall be entitled to a daily allowance of $40 whilst on official travel within Solomon Islands. Local travel allowance

16.-(1) The Ombudsman shall be entitled to travel first class on all official visits overseas. Class of travel (overseas visits)

(2) The spouse of the Ombudsman shall be entitled to travel first class when accompanying the Ombudsman on any official visits overseas.

(3) The spouse shall be entitled to claim subsistence allowance at the rate payable to the Ombudsman under regulation 14(2).

17. The Ombudsman shall be entitled to an outfit allowance of $500 when travelling overseas on official business. Such allowance may be claimed once every three years. Outfit allowance

18. The Ombudsman shall be entitled to an entertainment allowance from the Prime Minister's Vote for entertainment. The amount of the allowance shall be as determined by the Accounting Officer. Entertainment allowance

19. The Ombudsman shall be entitled to medical treatment in accordance with the terms prescribed from time to time for public officers. Medical treatment

20. The Ombudsman shall be eligible for a Government-guaranteed loan, the amount of which shall not exceed his annual basic salary at the time of application. Personal loan

21. A baggage allowance as prescribed from time to time by the General Orders shall be payable. Baggage allowance

22. Where the Ombudsman dies whilst in office the Government shall pay for all funeral expenses and all other expenses incidental thereto. Death during incumbency

23. The Ombudsman shall be entitled to all other benefits available to public officers under the General Orders or other regulations which are not covered under these Regulations.

Miscellaneous benefits

24.-(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2) the Ombudsman shall be entitled to a terminal grant of seven thousand dollars on expiration of his term of office.

Terminal grant

(2) Any accumulated debts shall be offset from the grant specified under the provisions of paragraph (1).

THE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) (DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC PROSECUTIONS) REGULATIONS

LN 141/1990

(Section 3)

[12th October 1990]

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Director of Public Prosecutions) Regulations.

Citation

2. The term of office of the Director of Public Prosecutions shall be permanent unless otherwise specified in a contract of employment.

Term of office

3. The duties of the Director of Public Prosecutions shall be as laid down in Section 91 of the Constitution.

Duties

4. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be paid an annual taxable salary of $59,224.75.

Salary

5. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall make contributions to the National Provident Fund as required under the provisions of the Solomon Islands National Provident Fund Act.

NPF contributions

- 6. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall on first appointment be paid an appointment grant of $2,000.00. Appointment grant
- 7. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be provided with an official residence free of rent. Housing
- 8. The cost of water, gas and electricity provided to the Director of Public Prosecutions' residence shall be charged to public funds and paid for by the Government. Utilities
- 9. The wages payable for the services of one domestic employee shall be charged to public funds and paid for by the Government. Domestic staff
- 10. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be provided with a vehicle free of charge. Vehicle
- 11. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to leave at the rate of three and half days a month or forty-two days per annum for each year of completed service, which leave shall be taken during the year in which it accrues. Leave
- 12.-(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions and his family shall be provided with air or sea passages at government expense to and from the place of domicile when proceeding on annual leave. Passage
- (2) In this regulation, 'place of domicile' includes that of the spouse.
- 13. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to two return trips either by sea or air on compassionate leave per annum. Compassionate leave
- 14.-(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to a daily allowance of US$55.00 or one-fifth of the daily allowance if the travel is externally funded. Overseas travel allowance

(2) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions is a guest of a host government, administration or agency and is not called upon to meet costs of accommodation and meals, he may claim subsistence allowance at the rate of one-fifth of the standard rate applicable to public officers under General Orders.

15. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to a daily allowance of $40.00 whilst on official travel within Solomon Islands. Local travel allowance

16.-(1) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to travel first class on all official visits overseas. Class of travel (overseas visits)

(2) The spouse of the Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to travel first class when accompanying the Director of Public Prosecutions on any official visit overseas and shall be entitled to claim subsistence allowance at the rate payable to the Director of Public Prosecutions under regulation 14(2).

17. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to an outfit allowance of $500 when travelling overseas. The allowance may be claimed once every three years. Outfit allowance

18. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to an entertainment allowance from the Prime Minister's Office Vote for entertainment. The amount of the allowance shall be as determined by the Accounting Officer. Entertainment allowance

19. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to medical treatment in accordance with the terms prescribed from time to time for public officers. Medical treatment

20. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to a Government-guaranteed loan, the maximum amount of which shall not exceed his annual basic salary. Personal loan

21. Subject to the provisions of Chapter F of General Orders, the Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to claim baggage allowance. Baggage allowance

22. Where the Director of Public Prosecutions dies whilst in office, the Government shall pay for all funeral expenses and all other expenses incidental thereto. Death

23. The Director of Public Prosecutions shall be entitled to all other benefits available to public officers under General Orders or other regulations which are not covered by these Regulations. Miscellaneous benefits

24. The Government shall be responsible for providing adequate security at the residence of the Director of Public Prosecutions. Security

THE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) (AUDITOR-GENERAL) REGULATIONS LN 156/1990

(Section 3)

[31st October 1990]

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Auditor-General) Regulations. Citation

2. The term of office of the Auditor-General shall be permanent unless otherwise specified in a contract of employment. Term of office

3. The duties of the Auditor-General shall be as specified under section 108 of the Constitution and any other duties conferred upon him from time to time by any Act of Parliament. Duties

4. The Auditor-General shall be paid an annual taxable salary of $59,224.75. Salary

5. The Auditor-General shall make contributions to the National Provident Fund as required under the provisions of the Solomon Islands National Provident Fund Act. NPF contributions
Cap. 109

- |   |                            |
|---|----------------------------|
| 6. The Auditor General shall on first appointment receive an appointment grant of $2,000.00.   | Appointment grant   |
| 7. The Auditor-General shall be entitled to rent-free government accommodation.   | Housing             |
| 8. The cost of water, gas and electricity provided to the Auditor-General's residence shall be charged to public funds and be paid for by the Government.   | Utilities           |
| 9. The wages payable for the services of one domestic employee shall be charged to public funds and be paid for by the Government.  | Domestic staff      |
| 10. The Auditor-General shall be provided with a Government vehicle free of charge.   | Vehicle             |
| 11. The Auditor-General shall be entitled to leave at the rate of three and half days a month or forty-two days per annum for each year of completed service, which leave shall be taken during the year in which it accrues. | Leave               |
| 12.-(1) The Auditor-General and his family shall be provided with air or sea passages as appropriate to his place of domicile and return passages to Honiara when proceeding on annual leave.                                 | Passages            |
| (2) In this regulation 'place of domicile' includes that of the spouse.  |                            |
| 13. The Auditor-General shall be entitled to two return trips either by sea or air on compassionate leave per annum.  | Compassionate leave |
| 14.-(1) The Auditor-General shall be entitled to a daily allowance of US$55.00 whilst on official duties overseas or one-fifth of the daily allowance if the travel is externally funded.                                    | Overseas travel     |
| (2) Where the Auditor-General is a guest of a host government, administration or agency and is not called upon to meet costs for accommodation and meals, he may   |                            |

claim subsistence allowance at the rate of one-fifth of the standard rate applicable to public officers under General Orders.

15. The Auditor-General shall be entitled to a daily allowance of $40 whilst on official travel within Solomon Islands. Local travel allowance

16.-(1) The Auditor-General shall be entitled to travel first class on all official overseas visits. Class of travel

(2) The spouse of the Auditor-General shall be entitled to travel first class when accompanying the Auditor-General on any official visit overseas and shall be entitled to claim subsistence allowance at the rate payable to the Auditor-General in regulation 14(2).

17. The Auditor-General shall be entitled to an outfit allowance of $500 when travelling overseas. The allowance may be claimed once every three years. Outfit allowance

18. The Auditor-General shall be entitled to an entertainment allowance from the Prime Minister's Office Vote for entertainment. The amount of the allowance shall be as determined by the Accounting Officer. Entertainment allowance

19. The Auditor-General shall be entitled to medical treatment in accordance with the terms prescribed from time to time for public officers. Medical treatment

20. The Auditor-General shall be entitled to a Government guaranteed loan, the maximum amount of which shall not exceed his annual basic salary. Personal loan

21. Subject to the provisions of Chapter F of General Orders, the Auditor-General shall be entitled to claim baggage allowance. Baggage allowance

22. Where the Auditor-General dies whilst in office the Government shall be responsible for all funeral expenses and all other expenses incidental thereto. Death during incumbency

23. The Auditor-General shall be entitled to all other benefits available to public officers under General Orders or other regulations which are not covered by these Miscellaneous benefits

Regulations.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SERVICE) (COMMISSIONER OF POLICE) REGULATIONS LN 155/1990

(Section 3)

[31st October 1990]

- |  |                               |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Commissioner of Police) Regulations.                                | Citation                      |
| 2. The term of office of the Commissioner of Police shall be permanent unless otherwise specified in a contract of employment.   | Term of office                |
| 3. The duties of the Commissioner of Police shall be as laid down in Section 43 of the Constitution and the Police Act.  | Duties                        |
| 4. The Commissioner of Police shall be paid an annual taxable salary of $59,224.75.   | Salary                        |
| 5. The Commissioner of Police shall make contributions to the National Provident Fund as required under the provisions of Solomon Islands National Provident Fund Act. | NPF contributionsCap. 109 |
| 6. The Commissioner of Police shall on first appointment receive an appointment grant of $2,000.00.   | Appointment grant             |
| 7. The Commissioner of Police shall be provided with an official residence free of rent.   | Housing                       |

- 8. The cost of water, gas and electricity provided to the residence of the Commissioner of Police shall be charged to public funds and be paid for by the Government. Utilities
- 9. The wages payable for the services of one domestic employee shall be charged to public funds and paid for by the government. Domestic staff
- 10. The Commissioner of Police shall be provided with one government vehicle free of charge. Vehicle
- 11. The Commissioner of Police shall be entitled to leave at the rate of three and half days a month or forty-two days per annum for each year of completed service, which leave shall be taken during the year in which it accrues. Leave
- 12.-(1) The Commissioner of Police and members of his family shall be provided with sea or air passages as appropriate to his place of domicile and return passages to Honiara when proceeding on annual leave. Passage
- (2) In this regulation 'place of domicile' includes place of domicile of the spouse.
- 13. The Commissioner of Police shall be entitled to two return trips either by sea or air on compassionate leave per annum. Compassionate leave
- 14.-(1) The Commissioner of Police shall be entitled to a daily allowance of US$55.00 whilst on overseas travel or one-fifth of the daily allowance if the travel is externally funded. Overseas travel allowance
- (2) Where the Commissioner of Police is a guest of a host government, administration or agency and is not called upon to meet costs for accommodation and meals, he may claim subsistence allowance at the rate of one-fifth of the standard rate applicable to public officers under General Orders.
- 15. The Commissioner of Police shall be entitled to a daily allowance of $40 whilst on official travel within Solomon Islands. Local travel allowance

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 16.-(1) The Commissioner of Police shall be entitled to travel first class on all official overseas visits.   | Class of travel (overseas visits) |
| (2) The spouse of the Commissioner of Police shall be entitled to travel first class when accompanying the Commissioner of Police on any official visit overseas and shall be entitled to claim subsistence allowance at the rate payable to the Commissioner of Police in regulation 14(2). |  |
| 17. The Commissioner of Police shall be entitled to an outfit allowance of $500 when travelling overseas. The allowance may be claimed once every three years.   | Outfit allowance                  |
| 18. The Commissioner of Police, shall be entitled to an entertainment allowance from the Prime Minister's Vote for entertainment. The amount of the allowance shall be as determined by the Accounting Officer.   | Entertainment allowance           |
| 19. The Commissioner of Police shall be entitled to medical treatment in accordance with the terms and prescribed from time to time for public officers.  | Medical treatment                 |
| 20. The Commissioner of Police shall be entitled to a Government-guaranteed loan, the maximum amount of which shall not exceed his annual basic salary.   | Personal loan                     |
| 21. Subject to the provisions of Chapter F of General Orders, the Commissioner shall be entitled to claim baggage allowance.  | Baggage allowance                 |
| 22. Where the Commissioner of Police dies whilst in office, the Government shall be responsible for all funeral expenses and all other expenses incidental thereto.   | Death during incumbency           |
| 23. The Commissioner of Police shall be entitled to other benefits available to public officers under General Orders or other regulations which are not covered by these Regulations.   | Miscellaneous benefits            |

SOLICITOR) REGULATIONS

(Section 3)

[12th October 1990]

- |   |                               |
|---|-------------------------------|
| 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Public Solicitor) Regulations.                                    | Citation                      |
| 2. The term of office of the Public Solicitor shall be permanent unless otherwise specified in a contract of employment.   | Term of office                |
| 3. The duties of the Public Solicitor shall be as laid down in Section 92(4) of the Constitution.  | Duties                        |
| 4. The Public Solicitor shall be paid an annual taxable salary of $59,224.75.   | Salary                        |
| 5. The Public Solicitor shall make contributions to the National Provident Fund as required under the provisions of the Solomon Islands National Provident Fund Act. | NPF contributionsCap. 109 |
| 6. The Public Solicitor shall on first appointment receive an appointment grant of $2,000.00.   | Appointment grant             |
| 7. The Public Solicitor shall be provided with an official residence free of rent.   | Housing                       |
| 8. The cost of water, gas and electricity provided to the Public Solicitor's residence shall be charged to public funds and paid for by the Government.              | Utilities                     |
| 9. The wages payable for the services of one domestic employee shall be charged to public funds and paid for by the Government.                                      | Domestic staff                |
| 10. The Public Solicitor shall be provided with a vehicle free of charge.  | Vehicle                       |

11. The Public Solicitor shall be entitled to leave at the rate of three and half days a month or forty-two days per annum for each year of completed service, which leave shall be taken during the year in which it accrues.

Leave

12.-(1) The Public Solicitor and his family shall be provided with air or sea passages at government expense to and from place of domicile when proceeding on annual leave.

Passage

(2) In this regulation, 'place of domicile' includes that of the spouse.

13. The Public Solicitor shall be entitled to two return trips either by sea or air on compassionate leave per annum.

Compassionate leave

14.-(1) The Public Solicitor shall be entitled to a daily allowance of US$55.00 whilst on official duties overseas or one-fifth of the daily allowance if the travel is externally funded.

Overseas travel allowance

(2) Where the Public Solicitor is a guest of a host government, administration or agency and is not called upon to meet costs for accommodation and meals, he may claim subsistence allowance at the rate of one-fifth of the standard rate applicable to Public Officers under General Orders.

15. The Public Solicitor shall be entitled to a daily allowance of $40 whilst on official travel within Solomon Islands.

Local travel allowance

16.-(1) The Public Solicitor shall be entitled to travel first class on all official overseas visits.

Class of travel (overseas visits)

(2) The spouse of the Public Solicitor shall be entitled to travel first class when accompanying the Public Solicitor on any official visit overseas and shall be entitled to claim subsistence allowance at the rate payable to the Public Solicitor in regulation 14(2).

17. The Public Solicitor shall be entitled to an outfit allowance of $500 when travelling overseas. The allowance may be claimed once every three years.

Outfit allowance

- |  |                         |
|--|-------------------------|
| 18. The Public Solicitor shall be entitled to an entertainment allowance from the Prime Minister's Office Vote for entertainment. The amount of the allowance shall be as determined by the Accounting Officer. | Entertainment allowance |
| 19. The Public Solicitor shall be entitled to medical treatment in accordance with the terms prescribed from time to time for public officers.  | Medical treatment       |
| 20. The Public Solicitor shall be entitled to a Government- guaranteed loan, the maximum amount of which shall not exceed his annual basic salary.  | Personal loan           |
| 21. Subject to the provisions of Chapter F of General Orders, the Public Solicitor shall be entitled to claim baggage allowance.  | Baggage allowance       |
| 22. Where the Public Solicitor dies whilst in office, the Government shall be responsible for all funeral expenses and all other expenses incidental thereto.   | Death during incumbency |
| 23. The Public Solicitor shall be entitled to other benefits available to public officers under General Orders or other regulations which are not covered by these Regulations.                                 | Miscellaneous benefits  |

THE CONSTITUTIONAL OFFICES (TERMS AND CONDITIONS
OF SERVICE) (CONSTITUTIONAL COMMISSIONS STANDARD
RATE) REGULATIONS

(Section 3)

[23rd December 1994]

- 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Constitutional Offices (Terms and Conditions of Service) (Constitutional Commissions Standard Rate) Regulations.

2. Members of all Constitutional Commissions shall be paid a standard rate of $150.00 sitting allowance per day.