SEDITION ACT (Cap. 32)

As in force at: 1 October 2009

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Sedition Act.

2 Interpretation

In this Act unless the context otherwise requires:

“import” includes:

- (a) to bring into Solomon Islands; and
- (b) to bring within the inland waters of Solomon Islands whether or not the publication is brought ashore, and whether or not there is an intention to bring the same ashore;

“newspaper” means a periodical publication containing any public news or comments thereon or any discussion of political matters;

“periodical publication” includes every publication issued periodically, or in parts or numbers at intervals, whether regular or irregular;

“publication” includes all written or printed matter and everything, whether of a nature similar to written or printed matter or not, containing any visible representation or any recording of the human voice or of instrumental music or of sounds or any cinematographic film or anything which by its form, shape or in any manner is capable of suggesting words or ideas, and every copy and reproduction of any publication;

“seditious publication” means a publication having a seditious intention;

“seditious words” means words having a seditious intention.

3 Seditious intention

(1) A “seditious intention” is an intention:

- (i) to bring into hatred or contempt or to excite disaffection against the person of Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, or the Government of Solomon Islands as by law established; or
- (ii) to excite Her Majesty’s subjects or inhabitants of Solomon Islands to attempt to procure the alteration, otherwise than by lawful means, of any matter in Solomon Islands as by law established; or
- (iii) to bring into hatred or contempt or to excite disaffection against the administration of justice in Solomon Islands; or
- (iv) to raise discontent or disaffection amongst Her Majesty’s subjects or inhabitants of Solomon Islands; or
- (v) to promote feelings of ill-will and hostility between different classes of the population of Solomon Islands

But an act, speech or publication is not seditious by reason only that it intends:

- (a) to show that Her Majesty has been misled or mistaken in any of her measures; or
- (b) to point out errors or defects in the government or constitution of Solomon Islands as by law established or in legislation or in the administration of justice with a view to the remedying of such errors or defects; or
- (c) to persuade Her Majesty’s subjects or inhabitants of Solomon Islands to attempt to procure by lawful means the alteration of any matter in Solomon Islands as by law established; or
- (d) to point out, with a view to their removal, any matters which are producing or have a tendency to produce feelings of ill-will and enmity between different classes of the population of Solomon Islands.

(2) In determining whether the intention with which any act was done, any words were spoken, or any document was published, was or was not seditious, every person shall be deemed to intend the consequences which would naturally follow from his conduct at the time and under the circumstances in which he so conducted himself.

4 Offences

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

7 Power of court to prohibit circulation of seditious publications

- (1) Whenever on the application of the Commissioner of Police it is shown to the satisfaction of the Court that the issue or circulation of a seditious publication is, or if commenced, or continued would be, likely to lead to unlawful violence, or appears to have the object of promoting feelings of hostility between different classes or races of the community, the Court shall make an order (in this section called a “prohibition order”) prohibiting the issuing and circulation of that publication (in this section called a “prohibited publication”) and requiring every person having any copy of the prohibited publication in his possession, power, or control forthwith to deliver every such copy into the custody of the Police.
- (2) An order under this section may be made ex parte on the application of the Commissioner of Police in Chambers.

- (4) Every person on whom a copy of a prohibition order is served by any member of the Police Force shall forthwith deliver to that member every prohibited publication in his possession, power, or control, and if he fails to do so he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment for one year or to a fine of one hundred penalty units or to both such imprisonment and fine.
- (5) Every person to whose knowledge it shall come that a prohibited publication is in his possession, power, or control shall forthwith deliver every such publication into the custody of the Police.
- (6) The Court may, if it thinks fit, either before or after or without service of a prohibition order on any person, issue a warrant authorising any police officer of or above the rank of Inspector and his assistants to break, enter, and search, either by day or night, any building or place specified in the order, and any enclosure, room, box, receptacle, or thing in such building or place, and to seize and carry away every prohibited publication there found, and to use such force as may be necessary for the purpose.

- (9) Every prohibited publication delivered or seized under this section with respect to which a petition is not filed within the time aforesaid or which is not ordered to be returned to the owner shall be deemed to be forfeited to Her Majesty.

8 Power to prohibit importation of publication

If the Prime Minister is of opinion that the importation of any publication would be contrary to the public interest he may, in his absolute discretion, by order prohibit the importation of such publication, and in the case of a periodical publication may, by the same or subsequent order, prohibit the importation of any past or future issue thereof.
